Movers List. Culture. Books. Film. TV. It concerned parakeets and rats, and it took place at Kew Gardens, which is not just a botanical treasure house, but an unofficial nature reserve with a surprising amount of wildlife on view, especially in the bluebell wood near Queen Charlotte's Cottage. In spring, the bluebells are an unforgettable sight, but in winter, with no leaves on the trees, it is the birds that catch the eye, especially from a path running right through the wood's heart, where at one point half a dozen bird feeders hang from a tree at the edge of a glade. eBooks - Category: Nature - Download free eBooks or read books online for free. It is almost certain that everyone who works for the BBC's Natural History Unit, or has aspired to, will have wolfed down the breathlessly thrilling storylines of these books. Next stop: Gerald Durrell (who did all this for real, or so he wrote) and Redmond O'Hanlon (Into the Heart of Borneo; In Trouble Again; Congo Journey). An Introduction to Behavioural Ecology. Nicholas B Davies, John R Krebs and Stuart A West, fourth edition, 2012. The outside world brought indoors between the covers of a book as only the artist Richard Long can. Long's art is his walks and the great leg-stretcher has been walking for nearly 50 years.
