THE ROYAL COURT THEATRE

The Royal Court Theatre in London is the writers' theater. It is a leading force in world theater for energetically cultivating writers—undiscovered, emerging and established. Through the writers, the Royal Court is at the forefront of creating restless, alert, provocative theater about now. They open their doors to the unheard voices and free thinkers that, through their writing, change our way of seeing.

Over 120,000 people visit the Royal Court in Sloane Square, London, each year and many thousands more see their work elsewhere through transfers to the West End and New York, UK and international tours, and digital platforms. Recent transfers to New York have included Beckett's Not I, Footfalls, Rockaby at BAM and, on Broadway, The River and Jerusalem by Jez Butterworth, and Constellations by Nick Payne. Through all the work, the Royal Court strives to inspire audiences and influence future writers with radical thinking and provocative discussion.

The Royal Court's extensive development activity encompasses a diverse range of writers and artists and includes an ongoing program of writers' attachments, readings, workshops and playwriting groups. Twenty years of the International Department's pioneering work around the world means the Royal Court has relationships with writers on every continent.

Within the past 60 years, Caryl Churchill, John Osborne, Samuel Beckett, Arnold Wesker, Ann Jellicoe, Howard Brenton, and David Hare have established their careers at the Court. Many others including Athol Fugard, Mark Ravenhill, Simon Stephens, Debbie Tucker Green, Sarah Kane—and, more recently, Lucy Kirkwood, Nick Payne, Penelope Skinner, and Alistair McDowall—have followed. Today, Royal Court plays from every decade are performed on stage and taught in classrooms and universities across the globe.

“Escaped Alone is magnificent. It has all the qualities that mark [Caryl Churchill] as the greatest living playwright- it’s funny, it’s complicated, and it’s sinister.” The Huffington Post. Directed by Churchill’s frequent collaborator James Macdonald (Cloud Nine; Love and Information; John Gabriel Borkman, Spring 2011), with startling performances from Linda Bassett, Deborah Findlay, Kika Markham, and June Watson, Escaped Alone is doomsday in a teapot, a calmly revolutionary vision of looming collapse.
