Political and Security compulsions as well as energy, trade, transit and commercial gains mainly determine Pakistan's policy towards Central Asia since 1991. Pakistan always sustained hope to become a regional transit trade hub by linking Central Asia, Western China and South Asia. Access to Central Asia's energy resources is one of the main objectives of Pakistan's policy towards the region. Economic Cooperation Organisation and Gwadar Port are still valid hopes of Pakistan in this regard. Pakistan actively engaged in Afghanistan for having a stable pro-Pakistan regime there and resultantly e
