The New Revised Standard Version (NRSV) first appeared in 1989, and has received wide acclaim and broad support from academics and church leaders as a Bible for all Christians. The NRSV Bible Translation Committee consists of thirty men and women who are among the top scholars in America today. Improvements over the RSV are of four different kinds: updating the language of the RSV, by replacing archaic forms of speech addressed to God (Thee, Thou, wast, dost, etc.), and by replacing words whose meaning has changed significantly since the RSV translation (for example, Paul's statement in 2 Corinthians 11.25 that he was "stoned" once). making the translation more accurate, helping it to be more easily understood, especially when it is read out loud, and.
